The Ballad Of Wallis Island

Thursday 11th December | 20:00

The Ballad of Wallis Island is a heartwarming, offbeat tale of music, memory, and second chances. When eccentric lottery winner Charles invites his favourite musician for a private island gig, old tensions resurface and unexpected guests arrive. As a storm traps them together, the night takes a twist, with humour, heart, and harmony at its core.

Mary Dillon, Neil Martin & Donal O'Connor

Friday 12th December | 20:00

Mary Dillon, Dónal O'Connor, and Neil Martin unite to create a rich, soul-stirring tapestry of Irish traditional and contemporary sound. Expect evocative vocals, masterful musicianship, and a fresh take on timeless Ulster songs. With fiddle, cello, harmonium, and uilleann pipes in harmony, this trio delivers a performance that's heartfelt, powerful, and more than the sum of its parts.

Traditional Irish Music Slow Sessions

Sunday 21st December | 19:00

Join accordion player Paudie O'Connor for a relaxed traditional music session with participants joining both in-person and via Zoom. Perfect for adult learners and those who enjoy playing Irish tunes at a slow and steady pace, this welcoming session offers a chance to play in a group setting and build confidence. Paudie will also teach a tune during each session, making it a valuable experience for musicians at all levels.

FILM & THEATRE

Borgo

Thursday 13th November | 20:00

Step into the surreal with BORG0, a visually striking and emotionally rich film that blends mystery, memory, and myth. Set in a remote village where reality blurs, this haunting tale explores identity, belonging, and the stories we carry. With stunning cinematography and a deeply atmospheric score, BORG0 is perfect for those who love thought-provoking, alternative cinema.

Sunphlowers

Thursday 27th November | 20:00

Sunphlowers is a beautifully crafted film rooted in the local landscape capturing the spirit, humour, and resilience of community life. With heartfelt performances and a story that blends warmth and wit, this is a must-see for anyone who loves authentic, homegrown cinema. Celebrate the power of storytelling close to home in our cosy theatre.

LIVE MUSIC EVENTS

The Pure Drop - With Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh & Nia Byrne

Friday 7th November | 20:00

Experience the heart of Irish tradition as renowned fiddle player and singer Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh shares the stage with her daughter Nia Byrne in a deeply personal and powerful performance. This intimate concert celebrates the unbroken line of Irish music, raw, emotional, and profoundly moving. A rare chance to witness two generations united in sound, spirit, and song.

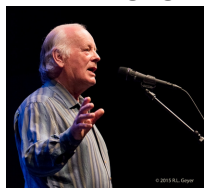

Lisa Lambe & Band

Saturday 15th November | 20:00

Step into a world of song, story, and spirit with Lisa Lambe's 'Nightvisiting' — a spellbinding evening of music inspired by folklore, tradition, and the voices of the past. Joined by her band, Lisa brings hauntingly beautiful vocals and rich arrangements that celebrate Ireland's oral heritage in a fresh, contemporary way. A deeply moving and magical experience not to be missed.

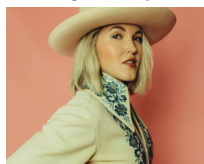

TSEAC Singing Sessions with Len Graham

Thursday 20th November | 19:00

Join us for an unforgettable evening of song and storytelling with legendary traditional singer Len Graham. Known for his rich repertoire and deep connection to Irish folk tradition, Len brings warmth, wit, and wisdom to every performance. Whether you're a seasoned singer or simply love the joy of shared music, this session promises heartfelt tunes and a welcoming atmosphere.

Ashley Campbell & Band

Friday 28th November | 20:00

Join us for an unforgettable evening with Ashley Campbell, daughter of country legend Glen Campbell, as she brings her heartfelt songwriting, rich vocals, and stellar musicianship to TSEAC. Blending Americana, folk, and country roots, Ashley and her band promise a night of soul-stirring music and storytelling.

EASTER SNOW GALLERY

Showcasing & Supporting Irish Artists

Our Easter Snow Gallery is a must-visit for art enthusiasts. Our gallery offers a serene environment for appreciating visual art and features diverse exhibitions by talented artists. The Easter Snow Gallery is open to the public daily from 10.00-4.00 p.m and all exhibitions can be viewed in full online.

Our Upcoming Exhibitions:

GILLIAN CULLEN - "FINE POINT"

1st of October to 30th November 2025

Discover the beauty of precision in Gillian Cullen's solo exhibition at TSEAC. Featuring exquisitely detailed pencil drawings, Gillian's work explores the honesty of form, texture, and negative space. Inspired by nature and the human body, each piece invites viewers to pause and appreciate the intricate details that often go unnoticed. A celebration of drawing as a timeless and truthful art form.

KATE WALSH

1st of December to 30th January 2026

This captivating exhibition showcases Walsh's latest works, bold, expressive pieces that explore memory, identity, and the Irish landscape through a contemporary lens. A celebration of colour, texture, and storytelling, this is an unmissable journey into one of Ireland's most exciting artistic voices.

STAY TUNED FOR MORE EXHIBITIONS COMING SOON.

COMING SOON

The Lowest Pair

Saturday 31st January | 20:00
