The Empty Nest

Friday 8th March | 20:30

Oisín Flores Sweeney's debut play is an hilarious piece of theatre that looks at how couples negotiate life after the kids leave, their dreams, disappointments, longings and uncompromising opinions on everything - Gogglebox on speed! Starring Seamus O'Rourke and Joan Sheehy.

An Tine Bheo

Thursday 14th March | 20:30

A film commissioned by the state to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the 1916 Rising. The film reflects the traditional heroic view of the national struggle and presents an uncritical picture of the Irish Citizen Army. This event is free to attend as part of Seachtain na Gaeilge '24 however booking is essential as places are limited.

Lies We Tell

Thursday 28th March | 20:30

The daunting, rambling estate of Knowl is no home for a young woman on her own, and certainly not for Maud (Agnes O'Casey) - just 18 years old. Freshly burdened with the sudden death of her father, and granted inheritance to his entire estate when she comes of age at 21, Maud is alone, unschooled in the ways of society, and vulnerable. The wolves begin to circle...

The Determinator

Friday 5th April | 20:30

Herbie Hoctor has just been trying to keep his head above water like any other halfway civilized human being but it's difficult to keep going when your landlord has given you notice to quit; when your nemesis and neighbour is threatening you with the Guards; when you've been fired from your job for refusing to sing the Happy Birthday song; when there's a dead body lying under your bedroom floor! Play written by; John McManus

TSEACMUSIC

Ronan O'Snodaigh & Myles O'Reilly

Friday 1st March | 20:30

Musicians Rónán Ó Snodaigh and Myles O'Reilly's second album The Beautiful Road, a soulful blend of folk, traditional, and ambient crossover follows the success of their debut album Tá Go Maith, which was warmly received by Irish audiences after its release in May 2020.

More Than Music with Ronan Browne & Siobhan Armstrong

Friday 15th March | 20:30

Presented by celebrated piper Ronan Browne, this series will immerse the audience in the culture-rich world of Irish Music and allow us to delve into the meaning behind the music through captivating talks between Ronan and his monthly special guest live on the TSEAC stage.

Réalta ft. Myles McCormack

Friday 22nd March | 20:30

Réalta, the dynamic Irish traditional group, return with their eagerly anticipated third studio album, Thing Of The Earth. The band have joined forces with acclaimed Belfast singer Myles McCormack to record a special blend of traditional and contemporary tunes and songs, all performed with the group's trademark passion and skill.

Campbell Jensen

Thursday 4th April | 20:30

Ashley Campbell and Thor Jensen form a unique meeting of musical genres as the duo Campbell/Jensen. With Ashley coming from the world of country and Americana and Thor having a diverse background from rock to gypsy jazz, they create a fresh sound as a musical duo that is not to be missed!

Peter Rowan

Saturday 6th April | 20:30

Grammy-award winner and six-time Grammy nominee, Peter Rowan is a singer-songwriter with a career spanning over five decades. Rowan performs internationally as a solo singer-songwriter, while stateside he plays in three bands: the Peter Rowan Bluegrass Band, a quartet featuring Keith Little, Mike Witcher and Paul Knight; Big Twang Theory and its Texas Cousin Twang n Groove and rock band The Free Mexican Air Force.

The Trials of Cato

Friday 12th April | 20:30

Formed in Beirut, the band returned to the UK in 2016 and set to performing tirelessly up and down the country, leading to BBC Radio 2's Mark Radcliffe hailing them as "one of the real discoveries on the folk circuit in recent times."

Mary Gauthier ft. Jaimee Harris

Saturday 13th April | 20:30

Mary's songs have been recorded by dozens of artists, including Jimmy Buffett, Dolly Parton, Boy George, Blake Shelton, Tim McGraw, Bettye Lavette, Mike Farris, Kathy Mattea, Bobby Bare, Amy Helm and Candi Staton and have appeared extensively in Film and Television, most recently on HBO TV's Yellowstone.

Sarah McQuaid

Saturday 20th April | 20:30

Sarah McQuaid's lush, chocolatey voice combines with her engaging personality, "subtle mastery onstage" (Huffington Post) and "brilliant musicianship" (fRoots) on acoustic and electric guitars, piano and (occasionally) drum to create a truly immersive experience.
